Possibilities Without Borders

A Global Affair in Charleston: Gala and Silent Auction

Newly founded not-for-profit organization, Possibilities without Borders, launches fundraising efforts for Bandage for Africa project with second annual Silent Auction and Gala.

CHARLESTON, SC. – A Global Affair was established as a yearly gala and silent auction event to support global service learning projects initiated by students and professionals in the Charleston community. This year's gala and silent auction will benefit Possibilities without Borders, Inc.'s new project, Bandage for Africa in which they plan to ship a 40-foot container of medical equipment and supplies to one of only two medical universities in Cameroon, Africa by March 2010. Our goal is to raise at least $10,000 through our silent auction in support of this and future projects.

Last year's auction was a huge success and raised a total of $4,000 towards a global outreach project called Technology for Africa. With this project, eight students from the College of Charleston traveled to Cameroon, Africa to set up three computer labs and teach students how to use to computers for economic development purposes. This year's auction is going to be even bigger than last year featuring a 7 day cruise on a private yacht for 8 people off the coast of Marmaris, Turkey. All meals and boat expenses including a full staff and crew are covered in this package. We are currently working with business owners all over Charleston and beyond to make this auction a success and would appreciate the support of the Charleston Community.
